Mr. Raines asked Finn if a complaint had been lodged against the Chatsworth job to his union last October. Mr. Rand objected, but Judge Newburyer told the witness to answer. "One minute!" yelled Mr. Rand: "just think what it means. We never claimed Weinselmer had anything to do with Earig in October."

'It means," interrupted Mr. Raines, "that it knocks your case on that proposition."

"that it knocks your case on that proposition."
Fina replied that such a complaint had been received, as Contractor Essis's predecessor, Rendell, was not a member of the Master Plumbers' Association. Regarding the calling out of the plumbers from the Chatsworth on Nov. 18, Finn said:

"The chairman of the conference or dered me to notify the men that they were violating the agreement."

Q. Was it in consequence of this notification the men withdrew? A. Yes.
